SEATING
Seating is assigned based on the number of students with each group.

Once inside the theater, groups are seated together in designated sections. To avoid obstructed viewing by older students, younger students will be seated in designated sections throughout the theater.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS
Our theaters are equipped with hearing devices and wheelchair accessible areas and we are happy to assist with any special requests. If you have not identified any specific needs on your Sales Agreement, please contact Alesha Rabe in the ticket office at least 48 hours prior to the performance with your request at (209) 338-5062 or ARabe@GalloArts.org.
AFTER THE PERFORMANCE

When exiting the theater, please remember groups are being dismissed behind you so please move your group all the way outside to the plaza.

Note: Any adult requesting to see or be seated with a particular student or group attending an Arts Education performance at the Gallo Center for the Arts must be approved by the teacher of that school/group prior to the adult having contact with the student or being seated with the group.
