ABOUT DIGITAL PROGRAMS

The Gallo Center has adopted the use of digital programs meant to be viewed on cell phones or other computer devices. This change has important public health, environmental and economic benefits: reducing close contacts between patrons and ushers, cutting our use of paper, and eliminating substantial printing costs. View the program only before shows begin or during intermissions. Please be considerate of other patrons and artists on stage by not viewing it during performances. Patrons who do not observe this courtesy and create distractions may be asked to leave. Thank you!

WHY YOUR SUPPORT MATTERS

The Gallo Center for the Arts is a non-profit performing arts center with a deep commitment to enriching the people and communities of California's vast San Joaquin Valley. From the scintillating performances of its wonderful resident companies, to the great variety of world-class entertainment presented by the Center each season, to robust arts education programs for the region's youth, this is where the magic happens.

From the beginning, the Center's mission has been clearly defined: to provide an inspirational civic gathering place where regional, national, and international cultural activities illuminate, educate, and entertain. Since revenue from ticket sales and facility rentals only covers a portion of the costs associated with fulfilling this mission, the Center is dependent on the generous annual financial support from donors and program sponsors within our community.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The mission of the Gallo Center for the Arts is to enrich the quality of life in the San Joaquin Valley by providing an inspirational civic gathering place where regional, national and international cultural activities illuminate, educate and entertain. The Gallo Center for the Arts celebrates the diversity of the San Joaquin Valley by offering an array of affordable cultural opportunities designed to appeal, and be accessible, to all.

The Center opened in September, 2007 and consists of the 440-seat Foster Family Theater, the 1,248-seat Mary Stuart Rogers Theater, the Marie Damrell Gallo Grand Lobby and a plaza serving both theaters, and the Modesto Rotary Music Garden.

As a regional non-profit performing arts center, the Gallo Center for the Arts presents internationally recognized touring artists in all disciplines, and also is home to four resident companies: Central West Ballet, Modesto Performing Arts, Modesto Symphony Orchestra and Opera Modesto.

The Gallo Center for the Arts is a unique public/private partnership. Construction was funded jointly by the County of Stanislaus, which owns the facility, and contributions from more than 4,000 individuals and businesses given to a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization which today operates the Center.

CAST BIOS

Sophie Blackburn (Sandra/Florence Colley Moore) is delighted to be making her debut with the Gallo Center Repertory Company and to be working alongside such a wonderful cast and crew. Favorite credits include 'Night, Mother (Thistledeew Theatre), Sylvia (Studio Theatre), and Doubt (Chautauqua Theatre). Also a voice actor, she narrates for companies such as Google, Asana, and Visa. She obtained her bachelors in Nursing and currently works as a registered nurse specializing in emergency medicine.

Zion Garan (Stage Crew/Understudy) started acting at Modesto High School, and continued performing at Modesto Junior College for two years doing shows like Eurydice and Cabaret. The Gallo Center for the Arts has always been an achievement he's been striving for and he is ecstatic to be here for The Play That Goes Wrong.

Luke Gonzales (Jonathan/Charles Haversham) graduated from Stan State with his degree in Theatre Arts with a focus in acting. An avid nerd from an early age, Luke fell in love with comics and video games then later found theatre as a medium to continue his love of interactive story telling. Some of his previous stage credits include Rapunzel's Prince in Into the Woods, Robert Lambert in Boeing Boeing, and Richard Dreyfuss in The Shark is Broken. He thanks you for being a patron of the arts and hopes you enjoy the show!

Deanna Hudgens (Annie) is truly tickled to be returning to the GCRC stage in The Play That Goes Wrong. A Modesto native, Deanna received a B.A. in Theatre Arts from Azusa Pacific University and proceeded to cut her teeth in the acting biz in LA. She then trekked across the country to earn an M.F.A. in Performing Arts from Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD). Recent stage credits include: The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time (GCRC), Love's Labor's Lost (PTP), and Boeing Boeing (GCRC). Film/TV credits: Saturday's Lament (short), Parked (Amazon Prime), and Fear, Love, and Agoraphobia. Deanna is thankful for the unwavering support of her family and friends. She is also grateful to you, dear patron, for supporting local live theatre.

Sergio Lopez (Max/Cecil Haversham) is a Tony Award-watching actor who is overjoyed to be in this talented group at the Cornley Drama Society. Previously seen with his magic foot at the Gallo Rep's 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee as William Morris Barfée, this marks his first straight play for someone who has only done musicals! Favorite past credits: Seussical (Horton), Into the Woods (Jack), Spamalot (Patsy), Rent (Mark Cohen). By day Sergio is a podcast producer, video editor, and social media manager who works on Attitudes! with Erin Gibson and Bryan Safi, The Michelle Collins Show, Ask Ronna, and This Might Get Weird with Grace Helbig and Mamrie Hart. You can find him making his own memes and videos on his Instagram/TikTok @showtimechamaco. For Patti who's given me 525,600 minutes times 13. TFTI.

Everardo Mendoza (Trevor) Is ecstatic to be back with his second GCRC production, after Stand & Deliver (2018) and returning back to the Foster Family stage since MPA's 2022 production of A Chorus Line in the role of Bobby Mills! Everardo began pursuing theatre in 2018 as a sophomore at Central Valley High School as a backstage hand for their production of Our Town. Later, he would audition and play one of his favorite roles to date, Babkak in CVHS's 2019 Aladdin Jr. As of recently, Everardo is attending MJC as a theater arts major and hopes to transfer to Long Beach State. He would also like to thank the MJC theatre students & faculty, past teachers, and coaches for their knowledge, love, and dedication. He would like to express his deepest gratitude to you, the community that breathes life into the theater community here in the central valley.

Cole Rizzotti (Robert/Thomas Colleymoore) is a 26-year-old actor born and raised in Modesto. He has always had a passion for entertainment and the art of theater but he only started acting as of 2024 at MJC. He's been in many great shows starting with his acting debut in Eurydice, where he portrayed Hades, Wait Until Dark where he portrayed Sgt. Carlino, and he starred as an ensemble member in the college's production of Cabaret. When Cole isn't acting, you can find him at home playing video games, with his friends playing Dungeons and Dragons, or outside hanging out with his two Boston Terriers.

Thomas Sackett (Dennis.Perkins) is ecstatic to return to the GCRC stage, previously appearing as Colonel Arbuthnot in Murder on the Orient Express. Holding a Bachelor's in Theatre Arts and English from CalState LA, Thomas works with the thought that "Theatre is Literature in motion." A notary public and legal videographer, Thomas enjoys spending his free time experimenting in the kitchen, watching movies with his wife Maryann and family, and running a free DnD youth group in Stockton, CA.

Jacob True (Chris/Inspector Carter) is a Modesto native who is always trying to find new ways to engage with the arts community at large. Currently, he runs the Central Valley Film Project, a community driven video production company. He was also the executive producer of the Central Valley Film Anthology, a heartland grant project that enabled dozens of artists to engage with creative filmmaking. This is Jacob's second GCRC production, having previously been featured in 1984. Jacob would like to thank his family, friends, and his amazing wife Jenny for their constant support.

Emma Rose Whitler (Stage Crew/Understudy) is so excited to be working with Gallo Center Repertory Company for the first time! She is a recent transplant to Modesto from Eugene, Oregon. She graduated with a BFA in Performance from Oregon Center for the Arts @ SOU in 2023. Past roles include: Matt in Matt & Ben (VLT), Margaret in The Lady's Not For Burning (SOU), Starveling in A Midsummer Night's Dream (SOU), #00 in The Wolves (LCC), Electra in Electra's Oresteia (LCC), and Alf in Peter and the Starcatcher (LCC). She wants to thank GCRC for this opportunity and her friends and family (and cat Lulu) for their support! 143

CREATIVE TEAM

Patrick Norris (Director) is a Theatre Director and Educator at John H Pitman High School in Turlock, CA. Born and raised in the Central Valley, Patrick studied Directing at Southern Oregon University and is thrilled to be directing at GCRC for the third time. Previous works include Twelve Angry Jurors, A Christmas Story (Director, GCRC) Hadestown: Teen Edition, Little Women, Chicago, Peter and the Starcatcher, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, Little Shop of Horrors (Director, John H Pitman). Patrick dedicates this production of Into the Woods to his late mother Teresa, his newborn son Benjamin, and his daughter Margot. Patrick also gives a special “thank you” to his wife Marilyn for her enormous support and partnership on their own winding path through the Woods of life.

Ryan Foy (Stage Manager) is the Director of Produced Theatre and Special Programming for the Gallo Center for the Arts, and in that role serves as artistic leadership for the Gallo Center Repertory Company. Originally from Denver, CO, Ryan graduated from the University of Michigan Musical Theatre program and studied at the National Institute of Dramatic Arts in Sydney, Australia. His early theatrical career was spent in New York City, appearing onstage in numerous national/international tours and regional productions across America, Australia, and Asia, including performances at Radio City Music Hall and the New York International Fringe Festival. For GCRC, Ryan has directed Winter Wonderettes, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, The Da Vinci Code. As a passionate local community member, Ryan is also a founder of the Modesto Children’s Museum, and serves on the Stanislaus Art Council board.

Dustin Venicombe (Technical Director) has been the lighting designer for GCRC since its conception; working on almost every show presented at the Gallo Center for the Arts. Known as a creative problem solver and cool dude, Dustin has been working in technical theater since the age of twelve with YES Company (1996-2002). As an active part of the local performing arts community, he has had the pleasure of working with Central West Ballet, Opera Modesto, Sankofa Theatre Company, Modesto Performing Arts, and Prospect Theater Project, as well as several Modesto area high school drama programs. Dustin brings his dedication and attention to detail to this new chapter of life and is excited to learn and hone his skills as the Technical Manager for GCRC.

Jewel Whitaker (Company Manager) has stage managed a variety of GCRC productions, including All is Calm, On Golden Pond, To Kill a Mockingbird, Of Mice and Men, Agatha Christie's Murder on the Orient Express, Winter Wonderettes, 12 Angry Jurors, Born Yesterday, 1984, Boeing Boeing, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, Into The Woods, and The Da Vinci Code. She also directed last season's Dial M for Murder, stage managed and co-directed (along with Jim Johnson and Wes Page) Twisted Tales of Edgar Allan Poe. An active part of Modesto's performing arts community, Jewel has performed with Prospect Theater Projects' Radio Cavalcade since its inception, with Center Stage Conservatory, and with Opera Modesto in their annual World Concert. She is the Special Programming and Events Manager for the Gallo Center for the Arts overseeing all Rentals and Resident Companies and their partnerships with the center.

Noelle Souza (Costume Designer) is delighted to be back working with her friends at GCRC! For the stage, she has recently designed Dial M for Murder, Spelling Bee, Boeing Boeing, 1984, Born Yesterday, 12 Angry Jurors, Winter Wonderettes, and Murder on the Orient Express for GCRC, Rough Crossing and Mother of the Maid for Prospect Theatre Project, and Oklahoma!, The Addams Family, Annie, YES Co's 30th Anniversary Concert Spectacular, and Singin' in the Rain for YES Company. For television, she has worked as the Costume Designer, Props Master, and Scenic Designer for over 40 national commercials for the brand, Grocery Outlet. Ms. Souza holds a degree from the University of San Diego and is passionate about sharing "costume magic" and storytelling through clothing. You can find more information about her work on her website: www.noellesouza.com.

Layla Jeffery (Production Assistant) is excited for her first show with the Gallo Center Repertory Company. Recently, she is proud to have worked as Stage Management and Technical Crew for John H. Pitman High School's award winning performance of Hadestown (2025) and serve as the Student Director for their most recent production Newsies (2026). Layla also works at the Turlock Chamber of Commerce helping to run events such as this year's Independence Day Parade & Fireworks Show while being a full time student at California State University Stanislaus.

Henry Lewis (Author) is an Olivier Award winning writer, actor and producer and is the artistic director of Mischief. Henry's work has been produced in over 40 countries worldwide.
